BOOMER ALERT

A TAN FORUM

Join TAN colleagues on April 21st to explore the impact that Baby Boomers will have on our Third Age learning groups. This Forum will be led by Michelle Gold, a strategist working with organizations and Norm Archer, Professor Emeritus at the deGroot School of Business at McMaster University. Michelle has conducted interviews with several of our member groups as well as organizations abroad who have experience in this area and will present her findings from these interviews. Participants will be asked to share their experiences in small groups helping to build a reference tool for members of TAN.

Aim of Forum

- To discuss impact of Baby Boomers joining our ranks
- To identify adaptations and programs that may be required
- To find ways to engage boomers as leaders in third age learning

Saturday, April 21, 2018

10 am to 3 pm

Atrium

The McMaster Innovation Park
175 Longwood Road E., Hamilton
(free parking)

LUNCH INCLUDED

In an article entitled The Boomers are Coming published in University Affairs in August 2015, Herb O'Heron, directed of research and policy analysis at Universities Canada, stated "there is no question the demand for courses outside degree programs is going to grow". This demand is an issue facing later life learning groups at home and abroad.

How to Sign Up

At least two (or more) from each group is invited to attend. Cost per person is $25. Please register by March 28 by sending names of participants, email addresses and a cheque for $25 each (payable to TAN) to Carole Langford, 1 Castle Gate, Stouffville, ON L4A 0G9 or e-transfer to Carole at langford@egate.net

TAN's Annual Meeting will follow the Forum at 3 pm
